Lisa L. Baker
Founder, Ascentim

Hi, I'm Lisa. For more than two decades I've achieved extraordinary success in a series of leadership roles with Fortune 500 companies that include Microsoft, Citigroup, and Bank One. At Synchrony, I was one of only nine Black female executives among more than 16,000 employees and was the Senior VP and GM responsible for growing the $2.5B eBay credit portfolio.

I've also experienced my share of hardships along the way — living through bankruptcy, divorce, and career setbacks. Through prayer, perseverance, and God's promises I not only survived, but thrived with record-breaking success, continuing on to build lasting wealth, a great family — including two children and four grandchildren (who call me GiGi) — a beautiful new marriage, and a life I love. It's now my passion to help others do the same and reach their peak.

If you're ready to G.R.O.W. email Lisa to begin living your best life.
