

A Bold Move that Unlocked a New Role

Taher Al Sharif

OVERVIEW

Taher was thriving as an engineer at a major energy company that serves over 20 million people. He respected his manager and enjoyed his role, but he knew he was ready for more. The question was clear: should he wait for advancement within his company, or take a bold step toward new opportunities?

CHALLENGE

Taher was at a crossroads. He wanted career advancement, a leadership role, and greater income growth, but opportunities inside the company were limited. Staying risked stagnation. Leaving meant navigating a competitive and uncertain job market.

“Lisa helped me reflect deeply on what I truly wanted for my career and guided me on how to approach the job search in the right way.” – Taher

THE ASCENTIM APPROACH

Together, we built a strategy that gave Taher the clarity and confidence to pursue his next chapter:

- Clarified his leadership strengths and long-term career vision
- Refined his resume to showcase his value and impact
- Equipped him with the tools and confidence to pursue external opportunities

RESULTS

- Landed a new role in less than 6 months of working with Ascentim
- Negotiated a 50% salary increase
- Built confidence and a clear strategy for long-term advancement

“Beyond the tangible results, Lisa gave me the clarity and confidence to pursue opportunities that align with my long-term goals.” – Taher

CONCLUSION

Taher’s journey shows that when you pair ambition with clarity and strategy, you can transform stalled growth into breakthrough opportunities. At Ascentim, we help professionals take bold steps: securing new roles, advancing their leadership, and achieving meaningful career success.
